

Course Title	Level 5 Certificate in Leadership and Management Skills
Awarding Body	Institute of Leadership and Management
Duration	30 weeks
Campus	Enniskillen
Audience	The ILM Level 5 Certificate in Leadership and Management Skills has been designed to give practising or aspiring middle managers a solid foundation for their formal development in this role. From 'Developing the manager as a critical thinker' to 'Making professional presentations' the Certificate in Leadership and Management Skills can be tailored to meet the varying needs of participants across all employment sectors.
Entry Requirements	There are no formal entry requirements but participants will normally be either practising or aspiring middle managers with opportunity to meet the assessment demands and have a background that will enable them to benefit from the programme. All learners gain free studying membership of ILM for one year.
Training Description	Subject related knowledge and skills are developed by lectures, seminars, practical workshops, case studies, directed reading, presentation, and information technology. The focus of the learning is on the practical requirements of a managerial role.
Objectives	The Certificate is made up of two mandatory units and several optional units. In the first unit, 'Understanding the management role', participants explore the nature of the middle management role and critically evaluate their own managerial ability. In the second mandatory unit, 'Assessing your own leadership capability and performance', participants explore leadership styles within their organisation, the commitment and motivation of their teams and their own ability to motivate teams to meet organisational goals.
Course Content	Candidates must complete two mandatory units: Understanding the management and Assessing your own leadership capability and performance and optional units, such as "Communication in Management" and "Leading Teams".
Progression	ILM Level 5 Diploma in Leadership and Management, Higher National Certificate in Business or any other suitable relevant qualification.
